HOLDING three long sessions for the election of the division school superintendents in those counties and cities where action had been deferred by the last meeting, the State Board of Education adjourned last night and announced its final conclusions.

There were, of course, many surprises, though it should be stated in all fairness that all the surprises did not come to either the incumbents, or to those who were on the outside looking in. For example, two strong men now in the service went out, who have been exceedingly doubtful concerning their chances for many days. One is Richard A. Doble, of Norfolk city, and the other Dr. Frank W. Lewis, of Lancaster county. Bitter factional opposition was offered as a reason why both of these men should be rejected, and should be turned down by the board.

In the end, however, both won, and the school system in their respective localities will probably go on in the same manner as heretofore. Their reelection depended solely upon the fact that they have made in office, for the political influence in their divisions were largely against them. Mr. Doble was a very happy man when the result was announced.

Agreement Made.

The board acting the following resolution concerning its action in re-electing Mr. Doble:

"In the matter of the election of a superintendent of schools in Norfolk city the State Board of Education is of opinion that the condition of the schools is in many essential features most encouraging."

"That the immediate need is for closer expert and technical supervision of the administrative staffs of the present division superintendents should not be lost to the schools."

"That in view of Mr. Doble's letter addressed to the board, it seems wise to re-elect him."

"Now, therefore, relying upon the promise contained in Superintendent Doble's letter, and being satisfied that with his active aid the desired result will be accomplished, the board has appointed Mr. Doble in the hope that the plan herein approved will meet with the cordial sanction and co-operation of the honorable school board of said city."

Following is Mr. Doble's letter:

"June 25, 1909.

"To the State Board of Education:

"Gentlemen,—If re-elected by the State Board of Education to the position of Superintendent of Schools in Norfolk city, I purpose, in pursuance of my expressed desire, to take steps at once to have the City School Board provide a supervising principal, who shall give his entire time to the expert and technical supervision of the schools, under such rules and regulations as the superintendent, in conference with the School Board, may enact. I shall have given to such large proportions I regard this assistance to the superintendent of very great importance."

Very respectfully,

RICHARD A. DOBIE.

"Division Superintendent of Schools."

Cold Political Fight.

In the case of Dr. Lewis, it was a straight political fight from the shoulder. The battle against him was led by W. McDonald Lee, chairman of the State Commission of Fisheries, and Governor Swanson's closest personal and political friend in the Northern Neck. At the first meeting of the board, held about ten days ago, it was decided to consolidate Lancaster with Northumberland county. Dr. Lewis remained in the race, declaring openly that, though he did not care especially about re-election, he would look upon it as a serious reflection should he be turned out simply to make a place for the faction of his party that has been fighting in season and out for purely political reasons. John Grier, the present member of the House of Delegates from the Lewis district, was here at the last meeting of the board, sitting at the Governor's office with Mr. Lee, though he earnestly requested that it be not stated that he was upon the ground. So far as can be learned, the official record of Dr. Lewis as a division school superintendent is as good as that of any man holding a similar position in the entire Commonwealth.
